Highmark PCP Value-Based Fee Schedule Adjustment Update for 2025

Negative adjustments to be applied, effective July 1, 2025

For Pennsylvania and West Virginia Primary Care Providers (PCP) in value-based arrangements with Highmark, negative fee schedule adjustments have been waived since 2021 due to the COVID-19 pandemic. Now that the health care marketplace has normalized, Highmark will reinstate the application of negative adjustments on PCP standard fee schedule claims reimbursement (based on 2024 True Performance metric results) beginning July 1, 2025.

If you are a PCP in our True Performance Primary Care value-based program in Pennsylvania or West Virginia, please visit the “Program News” section of our Quality Blue Interface to learn more. Quality Blue can be found under Applications in Highmark’s Payer Spaces in Availity®.
